Foreword

There is a pride in achievement—a pride that comes only through long hours of hard work and a fraternal spirit of co-operation.

This yearbook is placed in your hands through the courtesy of the junior class. We of the KEY staff sincerely hope that it will accomplish its purpose in bringing you, if only in a small way, some remembrances and memories of your college days.

Dedication

To Dr. Dale D. Welch . . .

For a decade of unequalled service and continuous devotion to the University of Dubuque;

For coming in the midst of a challenging situation, when the University was deeply in debt, and leaving only after the endowment fund had exceeded a million dollars;

For raising the scholastic standards of the school by drawing to it a faculty acceptable to the North Central Association;

We gratefully dedicate this 1948 edition of THE KEY.

ADMINISTRATION

Honorary Rector 1947

John R. Mott

Christian statesman, world traveler, scholar, author, administrator of world-wide importance, and winner of the Nobel Peace Prize for 1946, Dr. John R. Mott was installed as Honorary Rector of the University of Dubuque for 1947 by Dr. Samuel S. George, acting president, at St. Luke's Methodist Church on October 16. For six years now, the University has followed the unique practice in American education of selecting and installing each year a nationally and internationally known eminent personality as Honorary Rector. Formerly installed to this post have been: Thomas Mann, E. Stanley Jones, Harold E. Stassen, Robert Maynard Hutchins, and Sumner Welles.

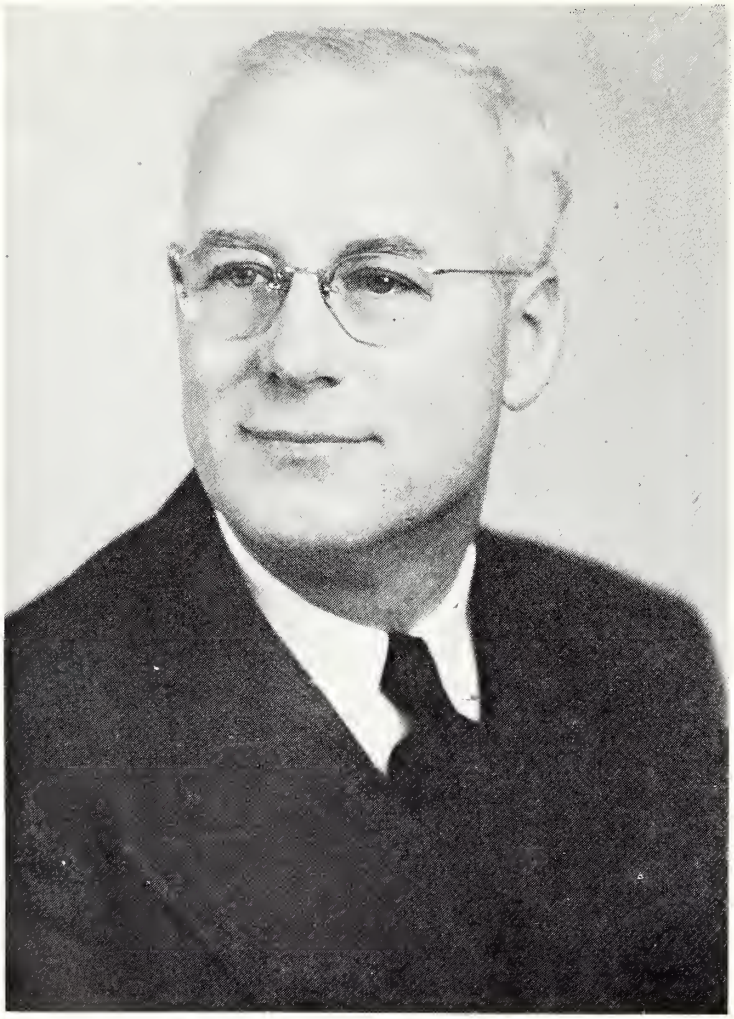

President

Rollo C. La Porte

"The call to help Dubuque achieve its centennial goals is clear. The challenge to conserve its traditions of sturdy faith and high scholarship is great. In accepting this high office I pledge all my enthusiasms. I renew my commitments to Christ. I bespeak the eager prayers and cooperation of the whole loyal Dubuque family." These are the words of Dr. Rollo C. LaPorte in accepting his appointment to the presidency of the University, effective April 15, 1948. Of unusual consecration, intelligence and vigor, Dr. LaPorte brings to Dubuque a friendly and kindly spirit.

Clarence Loats, President

Student Council 1948

OFFICERS

President	Clarence Loats
Vice President	Lucy Savino
Secretary	Betty Hansen
Treasurer	Don Jewell

The Student Council is a representative group of students elected by popular vote as an intermediary between the faculty and the student body.

Having for its original purpose the promotion of a fuller understanding and a greater cooperation in the establishment and functioning of all student activities, it has been their endeavor this year to continue this fine tradition; and, through the profits of experience, attempt to broaden the scope of their duties, functioning more and more directly as laison in all essential college activity between these two distinct parts of university life.

OFFICERS

President	Marilyn Beeler
Vice President	Pat Jones
Secretary	Eloise Oak
Treasurer	Eleanor Drescher
Monitor	Racine Koterwski
Elected representatives	Margie Dennler, Rena Hutchins
Freshman representative	Florence Landise

The Severance Hall House Council, with the help of the house mother and the Dean of Women, performs the duties of the student government of the larger girls' dormitory of the University. The council enforces the by-laws of the constitution, takes disciplinary action against offenders, and plans social functions. The House Council helps to promote good fellowship and a better home life for the dormitory girls of the University.

Steffens House Council

OFFICERS

President	Eldon Loats
Vice President	Robert Miller
Secretary-Treasurer	Gene Ruckstaetter
Representatives —

The activities of the Steffens House Council did not begin until the start of the fall quarter, 1947. Representatives were elected from all the occupants of Steffens Hall at the beginning of the school year.

For Christmas the Council representatives sold Christmas seals throughout the dorm and collected canned goods, willingly given by the students to be turned over to the Salvation Army.

Christian Life Council

The Christian Life Council was organized to co-ordinate and guide the religious life of our campus. It is composed of faculty members chosen by the president and a cross-section of the student body. The majority of the membership consists of students.

The groups that are represented are the Student Council, Panhellenic, Inter-Fraternity, Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, Gospel Team, Y. W. C. A., Chi Alpha Omega, Iota Chi Sigma, and the Seminary.

The Council has a part in guiding such activities as the chapel services and Spiritual Emphasis Week. In addition, it brings to the campus outstanding religious leaders.

The purpose of the Board of Publications is to form the policies of student publications on campus. Meetings are held to consider problems concerning Cue and the Key and to help the editors put out a better school paper and yearbook.

The personnel of the Board of Publications is composed of the Dean of the College, the Business Manager, the Director of Public Relations, the faculty sponsor of the Cue, the faculty sponsor of the Key, the editor and business manager of the Cue, the editor and business manager of the Key, and a representative of the Student Council. Miss Vivian Newport is chairman of the Board and Clark Offner is the secretary.

It was on November 1, 1944, that 128 dewy-eyed freshmen first set foot in the hallowed halls of the University of Dubuque. There was only one fellow for every two and one-half girls then, but the Navy V-12 Unit had already landed and managed to carry on until their departure in October, '45.

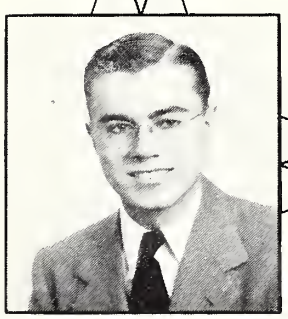

New students — many of them returning veterans — matriculated. This improved the ratio of fellows to girls. Now there are twenty-five girls to every thirty-five fellows. Twenty-three members of the senior class are already married, and five are engaged.

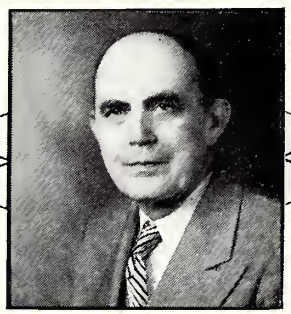

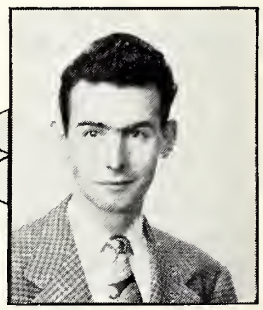

The Homecoming Queen of 1945 as well as the Drake Relays Queen came from our ranks. Many of the seniors desired symbols of their Alma Mater, so this year we again purchased class rings, pins, and keys for watch chains. We sponsored several social events which not only aided the social calendar but also raised our treasury to the point where we were able to present the Class Gift in actual form. The year ended with a new twist during Commencement Week. The class had a gala picnic at Eagle Point Park with invited guests. For entertainment, we laughed over the Class Will and Prophesy.

This year there were thirteen presidents of organizations, five vice presidents, five treasurers, three chaplains, five chairmen, three secretaries, three representatives on both the Student Council and the Christian Life Council, two reporters, one editor, and nine outstanding athletes. Eleven out of a possible nineteen were chosen for WHO'S WHO.

As to future plans, twenty-three will be teachers, eleven will go into business, ten will enter the ministry, three plan to do social work, and two will serve as Christian Youth workers.

We'll never forget our efficient officers and other illustrious classmates. What a list of prexies we had. Dorothy Grunenwald of the Zetas and also Panhellenic; Don Christensen of the Phi O's; Jeanne Loats of Omicron Mu; Earl Gantenbein of the "D" Club; John Heineman of Alpha Psi Omega; and Rena Hutchins of the WARA.

We were well represented in WHO'S WHO, too. Jeanne Loats, Betty Hansen, Mrs. Luella Langenberg, Jerry Borg, Harold Fisher, and Earl Gantenbein were chosen from our class.

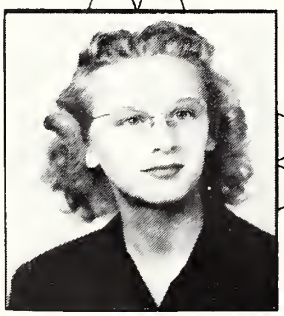

In the field of sports we had Jerry (Prof) Borg who was high point man in the Iowa Conference this year. What a mean basketball that guy slings!

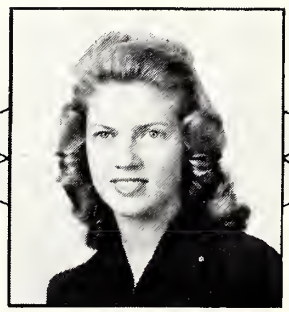

Juniors on the staff of our University's bi-weekly dope-sheet, the Cue, were Clarence Norton, Don Ferree, Pat Jones, Dottie Haworth, and Euvonne Roberson.

One of the toughest jobs of the year fell on the Key staff. Pat Jones, Bill Niles, and Barbara Croissant headed the literary part of the 1948 Key, while the job of financing this edition was successfully shouldered by Harold Fisher, Ed Adamek, and Bob Groom. The kids on the staff also put on a gala leap year dance. John Heineman and Dottie Haworth did okay with paint slingin'.

"We have arrived!" was the cry heard over the campus as the "sophs" came thundering back to the "U" in September.

The first thing the class did as soon as it became accustomed to its new title was to elect the class officers for the year. The fate of the class was placed in the hands of Tom Taylor and his stooges, Ed Behrends and Leroy Watts.

In order to impress upon the minds of the frosh who the B. W. O. C.'s were, the sophomores swamped the freshmen on Field Day at Chalmers Field.

The members of the class took their places in all of the activities of the school. We are proud that the football team, basketball team, and debate team were dominated by sophomores. We were also well represented in the music department, and we had many fine leaders in the Christian activities of the campus.

Who can forget "Rajah" Behrends and his harem as they led the students in the yells at football and basketball games? There was also "Moose" Donner's Spartan Club which really backed the teams.

With the past behind us, we now look to the future for another year as successful as this one has been.

When the learned upperclassmen returned to their Alma Mater last September, they discovered the halls of learning already inhabited by little green creatures wearing jockey caps to match. That, the startled scholars were informed, was the freshman class.

How far we novices have progressed in such a short time! The green tinge has been replaced by a pink glow of health derived from good food, lots of sleep, and the wonderful corn state sunshine. Our biceps bulge from lugging fuel for the Homecoming bonfire. Our hats no longer fit — due to the enlargement of our heads swelled by knowledge. Our female members have been slenderized to sylph-like proportions by folk dancing; the males have been built up to Herculean measurements by romps in the gym. We have learned the intricacies of the campus labyrinth. We know the way to Chalmers Field. In short, we're oriented.

In addition to the great progress we have made in adjustment, we have produced a follies, given a dance, joined fraternities, and participated individually as members of A Cappella Choir, Purple Masque, Alpha Psi Omega, Intervarsity, Gospel Team, Chapel Choir, orchestra, band, Omicron Mu, I. R. C., P. A. C., C. S. F., and Y. W. C. A. activities. We've written for the Cue and the Key. We've washed Commons' dishes and shoveled campus walks. We've written process themes, taken finals, been put on the Dean's list, and cut classes like veterans. We've become full fledged members of the Dubuque family, and we're proud of it!!

Seminary

OFFICERS

President	Robert Von Oeyen
Vice President	Leland Rubesh
Secretary	Myron Bower
Treasurer	Leland Engstrom

The Seminary had a full year for 1947. During this year the Seminary has been given full endorsement by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. In the spring quarter students from the Seminary cooperated with the Dubuque Council of Churches in daily broadcasts over stations WKBB and KDTH. The preaching honors for the senior class went to Merrill Harris and Herbert Manning. Fred Koschmann won the Scripture Reading Festival prze. In all, seven men graduated in June, 1947. In keeping with the tradition of the school to serve "the whole church in the whole world," one senior went to Alaska and another applied to the Board of Foreign Missions. Others served churches in several states.

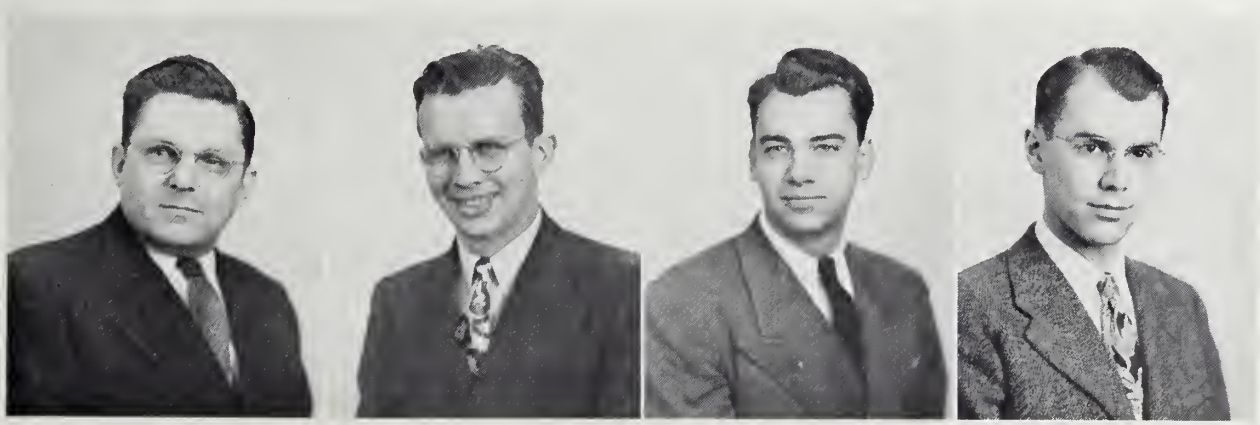

A general Seminar on Evangelism was held in the spring quarter, and in the fall quarter a very helpful Orientation Program was presented by all the members of the faculty. Each month library teas were given with a member of the faculty reviewing a timely and stimulating book.

On May 14th the Annual Seminary Retreat was held at Bellevue, Iowa. Dr. Samuel Zwemer was the retreat speaker.

At the opening of the fall quarter on September 15th, Dr. Theodore G. Lilley of Cedar Rapids brought a very challenging sermon, after which Dean Samuel George officially opened the 1947-1948 academic year.

The Seminary cooperated with the New Life Movement of the Presbyterian Church. On the week of October 20-21, Dr. David Berger of the faculty, attended the New Life Training School held at St. Paul. On the week of November 3-6, Dr. James T. Veneklassen and Rev. Arnold Langenberg of the seminary faculty and three seniors, Leland Rubesh, Ben Cochenet, and Robert von Oeyen, attended the New Life Training School at Omaha, Nebraska.

The Seminary has also cooperated with and sent delegates to conferences of the Inter-Seminary Movement. Three Seminarians, Myron Brower, Thomas Melton, and Harry Stevens, attended a conference at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, June 11-18. The conference held in Chicago, November 20-21 was attended by Dr. Mihelic, Myron Brower, Alfred Drake, and Thomas Melton.

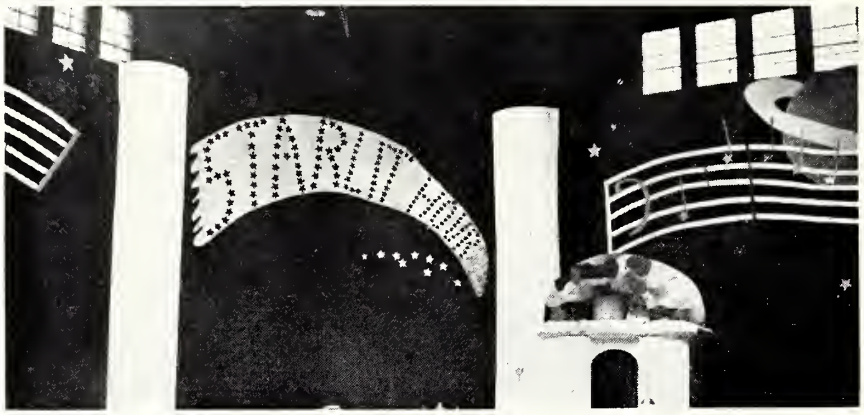

CAMPUS LIFE

College 1948

To every individual on the campus of the University of Dubuque that word has a different shade of meaning. To some it has meant the fullfillment of long hoped for dreams; to others — only a stepping stone to a position in the world in which we live; but to each of us it has meant a growing-up period in our lives, an enlightenment educationally, socially, and perhaps spiritually.

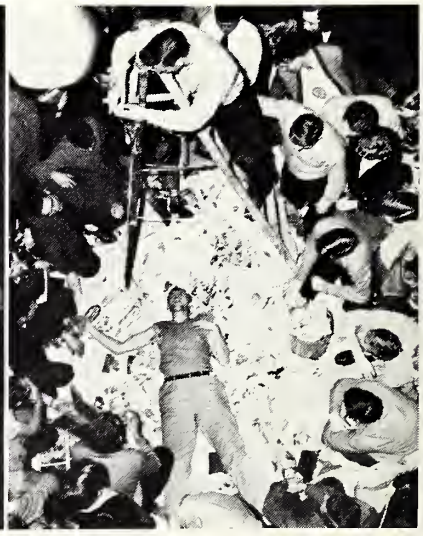

Oh — there have been times when we hated the place. Remember some of those lonesome freshman days when we missed the old gang we graduated with? . . . and the horrid finals making life so complicated? . . . the regulations seeming so nonsensical at times . . . 8 a.m. classes when that bed was so nice . . . bickerings with the best friend or roommate when one of you happened to be in a foul mood?

Yet, for every negative reaction to college, there are positive factors to outweigh them. Even now the majority of us neither realize nor fully appreciate the values we shall take away with us.

We are builders, builders of the future. Four years pass fleetingly by in the course of one's life, but our memories will live as long as we do. It is within the power of us all to lay these foundations of memories strongly and securely.

Remember---

The Y. W. C. A. May Fete with the dazzling Starlit Hour show, the May breakfast on Severance lawn, and the carnival where a sorority had the most fascinating booth . . . Queen Anne Kuentz reigning . . . the fun at the Wednesday recreation nights . . . all the girls getting ten o'clocks . . .

The Inter-Sorority dance . . . rushing in at one a. m. to change into working clothes to help clean up . . . the Senior Dinner with its sharp realization of how soon graduation . . . the sororities and fraternities packing up and going to their favorite hide-outs for Flunk Weekend . . .

The inevitable rain on the night of a formal dance . . . lovely Marilyn Beeler, queen of the Junior Prom . . . baccalaureate service at Westminster and commencement at St. Luke's . . . the seniors lining up for the last time behind Van Vliet's famous cane . . .

The thrill of returning to the campus in the fall . . . noisy greetings to friends not seen since spring . . . changes — Dr. Welch and Dr. Fox gone . . . freshmen all in a dither over green beanies, campus tours, and entrance exams . . . the spiffy new enclosed bulletin boards . . . standing in all sorts of lines in order to register . . .

Sad news of Scooter's tragic death during the summer . . . the nifty new bleachers . . . sitting in the hot sun at the first football game . . . the Commons food the same as ever . . . discovering you'd missed those flying carrot sticks . . .

A pioneer spirit carrying you through the ordeal of cold water and no heat for a few weeks in the fall . . . the chilling showers after football practice . . . the Booster Club siren squealing an invitation to a pep rally . . . the YW cabinet leaving for its annual fall retreat . . .

Meeting Honorary Rector John R. Mott at the tea in the Conzett Lounge and then listening the next evening as he addressed a huge audience at St. Luke's . . . what a low blow the Dean's list always was . . . the freshmen failing to overcome the superior might of upperclassmen in the yearly tug-of-war and resigning themselves to wearing green beanies a couple of weeks longer . . . a freshman can't win . . .

The Red Cross X-ray Unit coming to the campus and everyone having T.B. tests taken . . . the Chinese tea sponsored by all the Chinese students on campus . . . assembling in the gym to watch Capt. J. E. Hurff present the University with a plaque for outstanding service in connection with the V-12 program . . .

Study becoming an impossibility with Homecoming in the air . . . seeing old friends . . . scurrying to help your class decorate a building . . . rushing to build the best float or even to get a cow for part of the decoration . . . seeing Quayle Brown crowned queen at the game and watching U. of D. win . . . attending the banquet . . . dancing until twelve . . . enjoying every hectic moment . . .

Prospective pledges nervously trying to appear calm at rushing teas . . . the funny looking pledgies on sorority Hell Day . . . the antics under the rotunda and in the Commons at noon being enjoyed by everyone but the pledges . . . listening to the Messiah sung with a bigger and better chorus and orchestra . . . nursing bumps and bruises from the all-school skating party . . .

The loss of a good friend in the death of Lou Blonden — a man always ready with a bit of good advice and cheer . . . "Blithe Spirit" playing in the Little Theatre . . . super good as well as supernatural . . . the strains of "She's Too Fat" issuing from the Goats . . . the dreams of home-cooked turkey coming true with the advent of Thanksgiving vacation . . . the turkey dinner in the Commons an excellent preview of that to come . . .

The New Look . . . fellows threatening to use scissors . . . discussing it pro and con . . . the Christmas banquet with the beautiful pageant and music afterward . . . the big tree in Severance . . . girls knitting in its glow . . . Christmas vacation arriving at last . . . hurrying to get home . . .

Returning to school with good resolutions soon to be broken . . . spills and thrills on the campus ice rink . . . Spiritual Emphasis Week with Dr. Christie Swain . . . the pleasant luncheon meeting with him . . . Miss Raattama's folk dancing class . . . the chorus of "lovelies" at the Freshman Follies . . . fourth floor Steffens becoming the playground of practical jokers battling to the last drop in their water pistols . . .

The pretty Y..W. Sweetheart Dance . . . the fellows holding their breaths waiting to be asked . . . actives brandishing paddles during fraternity Hell Week . . . harassed pledges striving but failing to please . . . the capers on the corner of Eighth and Main . . . pride in the basketball team as they again became conference champs . . . the rousing last game of the season as Central was decisively defeated . . . someone smelling smoke in Steffens and five fire trucks suddenly appearing . . .

The Ballet Intime proving to be enjoyable and interesting . . . the Commons magically turning into a ballroom for the Key Dance . . . Alice Bowen looking mighty pretty and making a bow as candidate for Drake Relays Queen . . . all the trailers behind the Commons and gym . . . the frequent small additions to the population . . . seeing a movie the night before a final . . . all work and no play, you said . . . enjoying the student one-act plays . . .

Thrilling to the Cincinnati Symphony's interpretation of "The Saber Dance" . . . finally solving the problem of getting a davenport in Severance parlor by arriving early on cold winter evenings . . . the emptiness of the parlor in the spring . . . the enjoyable debut of the college dance band at the Gingham Ball . . . A Cappella members telling about their tour in western Iowa, Minnesota, and South Dakota . . . warmer weather and spring vacation . . .

ORGANIZATIONS

WHO'S WHO

Upper classmen are chosen by the faculty to represent the University of Dubuque in the book, Who's Who among Students in American Universities and Colleges. They, too, are chosen for outstanding achievement in scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

Honorary

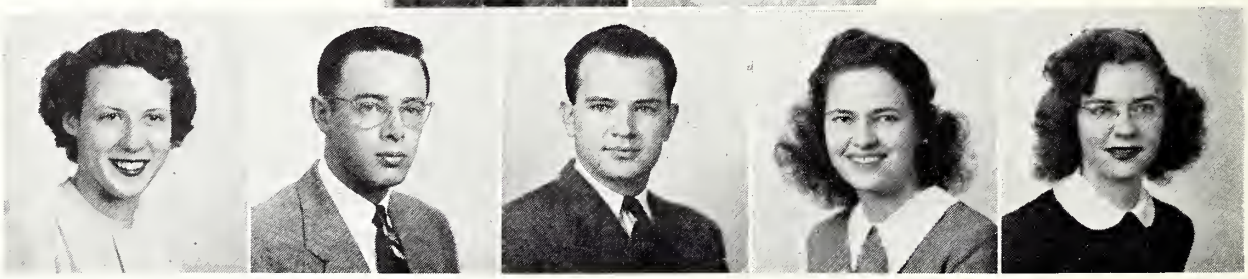

1948

Alpha Pi Omega

Students eligible for Alpha Pi Omega must have a grade average of 2.0, evidence of having willingly stood for high ideals, good conduct, and courteous manners; evidence of leadership has been considered favorably.

The University Gospel Team continues to be one of the largest and most active organizations on the campus. It has, to give it vitality, the two-fold purpose of telling others of the Kingdom of Christ and of lending real experience to those who serve in some capacity in its activities. More than one hundred students have indicated their desire to join this organization, and the group continues to grow.

The Gospel Team has been active in leading services at the Dubuque Rescue Mission, the Old People's Home, Finley Hospital, the Children's Home, and in many churches both within and outside of Dubuque.

Dr. Berger is the able and consecrated sponsor of this group, with Barbara Stevens and Harold Fisher as co-chairmen. Their responsibility is that of directing the Team's activities, procuring program dates, arranging programs, and enlisting students' talents in order that each program might be as beautiful, worshipful, and helpful as possible. From four to ten students make such trips.

Each month a party is held in the Jacob Conzett room for the entire group. Games, a worship program, a speaker of renown, and refreshments comprise a typical evening's entertainment. Recently the group saw the movie, "Beyond Our Own," — an excellent picture on evangelism.

The Gospel Team has led as many as four different worship programs on a single weekend. In the future it looks forward to an even fuller schedule. Students who are going and have gone on trips attest to the joy they find in serving. Proof that the Gospel Teamers have given of their best lies in the fact that they have been asked to return to each place they have gone. They continue to serve a world straining to hear more of the Good News.

The Chi Alpha Omega, national pre-ministerial fraternity, Alpha chapter, has grown both in activities and number in the past year. Its fall membership was nineteen, with thirteen pledged for membership, becoming actives by the end of the winter quarter.

The activities of the year were limited mainly to business sessions and the bringing in of new members. However, the summer quarter witnessed a picnic at Eagle Point Park . . . Louis Conrad provided the beans — and the seasoning.

Dr. David Berger was officially installed as an honorary member of the Chi Alpha Omega at the December meeting. This was the first honorary membership presented. It is hoped that other outstanding leaders of the church will be given such mem berships.

In the past the students of the University going into full-time Christian service were members of the Christian Service Fellowship. This organization was dissolved and the Iota Chi Sigma came into being as the sister sorority of the Chi Alpha Omega.

The regular monthly meetings of the Iota Chi Sigma help its members to realize how they can better serve the Lord. Outside speakers have helped to make these meetings meaningful by speaking on such subjects as the place of audio-visual aid in teaching Christianity spiritual qualifications for a missionary and qualities which a good leader should possess.

Two Inter-Varsity Newsletters were published and distributed by the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship — one during the spring quarter and one during the summer quarter.

These letters contained accounts of the activities of the Inter-Varsity group and were sent to members on the campus and to members of Inter-Varsity groups in schools throughout Iowa. Also sent to these various colleges were prayer request letters.

The Inter-Varsity spring conference was held May 2nd to May 4th at the Riverside Cabins near Storey City, Iowa. Dr. Robert Smith was the main speaker. The purpose of the conference was to bring Inter-Varsity members from various campuses together for prayer, study, and fellowship.

The traditional get-together party for new and old students at the opening of each school year was held on September 26th in the gym. Following a scavenger hunt, a devotional service was held in the gym and refreshments were served.

A joint Christmas service was held December 5th, sponsored by Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, Christian Service Fellowship, Chi Alpha Omega, and the Gospel Team. An inspirational program, centering around Cynthia Maus' book, Madonnas of the World, was presented. A Christmas tea followed the program.

The Lutheran Students Association is an organization of students from the University of Dubuque, Finley Hospital, and Wartburg Seminary.

The aim of L. S. A. is to maintain in students the desire to remain active in their church. This is done by active participation in the activities of the group, devotional services, and social affairs.

During the year programs of great interest, with discussions led by men outstanding in their fields, were held.

Each year the Y. W. C. A. contributes much to the campus and to others through the many activities it sponsors. This year the activities were numerous. They included conferences at Des Moines, the freshman activities and Sunday dinner, Thanksgiving food baskets for the needy, Christmas toys for children, the Sweetheart dance, and the sponsorship of the W. S. S. F. drive. Then a big undertaking that none of us will forget was the May Fete and the "Starlit Hour." The Y. W. C. A. put on an exceptional musical program, breakfast and carnival, with the much appreciated help of others.

The A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Mr. Franklin LeBar, sang a total of twenty-five concerts. The year started with a performance at the Rectorial Convocation, followed by a broadcast over the ABC network. This broadcast, entitled "Our Town Speaks," was heard from coast-to-coast, as shown by reports from California, Texas, and New Jersey. The broadcast explained the history of Dubuque with reports from the leading manufacturers in the town. The Loras Vested Choir also sang two selections on the same program.

Some eighty-four hours were spent during the year in preparatory rehearsals for the annual tour. Nineteen concerts were given in nine days in towns in Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and South Dakota.

Mrs. Rumbaugh was kept busy dodging snowballs and making sure that everyone had a roof over his head at night, while Mr. Turner beamingly collected the folding money.

The program consisted of three main groups — four Latin numbers representing the music of the early church, four numbers by Russian composers, and six selections, two of which were Christianson, two were Brahms, one was Sullivan, and one Lutkin. Our soloists were Jeanette Kolls, violinist, Marilyn Jones, oboist, and Eleanor Drescher, mezzo soprano.

An additional group of light folk melodies was included at the high school performances. The program given at West High in Waterloo was broadcast later from KXEL, and a half-hour broadcast was also given over KTRI in Sioux City.

The members of the choir feel that the very successful year was largely brought about through the efforts of the director, Mr. LeBar.

The chapel choir consists of thirty-two voices under the able direction of Miss Bertha McAllister. The choir has been a great help during chapel services, and it has also made a place for itself in other activities.

This year the girls presented programs of secular music at the evening vesper services and at Christmas time sang various beautiful selections of carols and other Christmas songs. They also took an active part contributing their voices in the May Fete Musical, "Royal Scandals."

During chapel hour the girls have not only presented specials, but they have also arranged entire programs of religious music. They have added a great deal to our hour of worship.

Campus Singers helps to round out the types of musical organizations by making a place for secular songs in a program of almost entirely sacred music.

The group was organized early in the second half of the year under the direction of Mr. Franklin LeBar. The girls sang in various secular programs and at the May Fete.

Talent within the group was especially evidenced by the fact that two members — Margaret Kolls and Betty Ihrcke — were competent accompanists, and each accompanied part of the time.

At piano: Camilla Vozzella.

With the plaintive call of the oboe, the thirty-piece university orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Doy Baker, comes to attention each Tuesday evening in the Little Theatre to rehearse standard concert and symphonic selections. During the Christmas season, the group provided the accompaniment for the annual presentation of Handel's "Messiah." On Sunday afternoon, February 29th, Camilla Vozzella appeared as piano soloist during a concert given in McCormick Gymnasium. Her selections were Mendelssohn's light and cheerful "Concerto in G Minor." The well balanced winter concert also included Mozart's "Don Giovanni" overture and the "Symphony in C Minor" by Beethoven.

Special recognition must be given to Marian Parker, senior, who has been a member of the orchestra for the past four years.

The University band can be justly proud of having completed a successful year. Two concerts were held during the past year, each of them featuring several soloists and instrumental groups, attributing to the fact that the organization is made up of a number of very proficient instrumentalists.

Three shows were presented for football games; each performance featuring a stunt or two. The substitute player stunt, highlighting the season, involved a tuba player who just couldn't go any further and a "plant" located on the sidelines, who resumed the activities of said tuba player after he had succumbed. The last football game was attended by cold weather, but, undaunted by frozen valves and things, the percussions, brasses, and reeds valiantly strove to perform their duties upon the playing field. Commendations!!

In addition to the concerts and football games, the band played for two pep meetings, the Navy Plaque Presentation Ceremony, basketball games, and the Galena Mardi Gras. Nor can we forget the activities of the German Band at the May Fete, nor Schroeder's dubious "pillow-paunch" appearance.

Under the able direction of Professor Baker, the band has grown in size, and individual technical proficiency has improved. The indications are that more improvements will be forthcoming.

String Trio

The University String Trio is composed of a select group of students who wish not only to further their musical knowledge and skill, but also to serve the community as well as the school. This year's trio is composed of Betty Ihrcke, Marian Parker, and Archie Robinson, violinists. Betty and Marian are music majors and Arch is an economics major.

The trio is called upon for many occasions. They play both religious and secular music. This year they played for the Homecoming Banquet, the Faculty Christmas Dinner, the Football Banquet, the Eastern Star Installation, the P. T. A. Banquet, and for many other programs, church services, receptions, and dinners.

The trio plays more often for banquets than for anything else. The musicians say that they have a hard time deciding when to eat their meals — before or after the banquet. If they eat before they play, they feel uncomfortable, and if they wait until after the meal there is always a possibility that they will have to take left-overs and maybe get cheated out of dessert.

No academic credit is given for this work. The students take it upon themselves to decide the time and amount of practice. It takes lots of time and practice, but the trio enjoy it.

If you want dinner music to fill in the minutes while everyone isn't laughing and talking, call on Ihrcke, Archie, and Parkie — the Triple-Diple Trio.

Under the leadership of Duane Meyer with the guidance and support of the sponsor, Professor William G. Rozeboom, and assistance of the Council made up of Donald Paar, Donald Ferree, Robert Simmons, Harry Daleburn, and Sue Denton, the departmental club of the social science division has become a thriving and interesting organization. Made up of those students vitally interested in world affairs and current events, the club has concentrated upon panel discussions and debates with participation by prominent townspeople, faculty, and students, in which opinions and arguments are invited and freely given. It is hoped that the club may continue to have a successful existence awakening an interest in the world around us, among more students on the campus, especially during the critical period which we are now witnessing. It is to this purpose that the club is dedicated, and to which it has given and will continue to give time, support, and ability.

The Pan American Club was founded on the campus of the University in 1944 to foster a spirit of good will and understanding among the people of the Americas.

The club is distinguished by serious, worthwhile, and interesting meetings with a wide scope of appeal. One of the most interesting of these programs, presented for the student body, was an imaginative trip by rail from Canada to South America. Always the highlight of the year is the annual "Pan American Week" observed in the spring, at which time the campus takes on a "Latin" air in observance of the occasion.

The Purple Masque is an organization created for the purpose of recruiting material for all phases of play production. It functions as a social organization for students participating in dramatics. Although in the past the Purple Masque has been open only to freshmen, this year its membership has expanded to include all those interested.

Make-up, stage setting, and dramatic productions have received the main emphasis of this year's activity.

Extended programs have been planned for the coming year, including social events, and penthouse plays.

Four members of the "U" became eligible for membership in the National Honorary Forensic Society, Pi Kappa Delta, last year. This quartet established a local chapter on the campus and elected officers.

The purpose of this organization is to stimulate progress in and to promote the interests of intercollegiate oratory, debate, and public speaking by encouraging a spirit of intercollegiate fellowship, brotherly cooperation and interest, and by conferring honors according to merit and achievement upon deserving participants.

In order to become eligible for membership, one must participate in a minimum of five intercollegiate debates, discussions, or orations. The above four members became eligible by attending the Iowa Intercollegiate Forensic Tournament at Coe College in March, 1947. Later Bob and Harold represented the "U" in the National Convention and Tournament of Pi Kappa Delta at Bowling Green State University at Bowling Green, Ohio, from April 6 to 11, 1947. Their record there was four wins and four losses against stiff, experienced opposition.

This year the fraternity has already attended a meet at Iowa State Teachers College at Cedar Falls. Six men — Ronald Buell, Jim Soladay, Ray Gould, Jim Richardson, Bob Simmons, and Harold Fisher — participated in debate, discussion, and extemporaneous speaking. Meets on the fraternity's calendar include tourneys at Southern Illinois Teachers College, University of Nebraska, Tulane University, MacAllister College, and the Red River Valley and Iowa Intercollegiate Conventions. The fraternity looks forward to expanding its membership this year.

The Future Teachers of America was founded under the auspices of Miss Selma Hill and Dr. Curtis Leaf to promote a better understanding of the ideals of the teaching profession among the future teachers on the campus.

The local chapter was organized as a result of the interest created by the conference of the Northeast District held at Upper Iowa University in 1947. The delegates to this convention were Winston DeMuth, Rosemary Gray, Joanne Mosby, Clarence Norton, and Dr. Leaf.

In November a delegation of two people, Joanne Mosby and Joyce Ohden, went to Des Moines to the Iowa State Teachers' Association Conference. The Association Conference, which lasted three days, was concerned with various problems of education and teacher improvement.

It is hoped that this organization will help to prepare future teachers and to solve the problems which they will encounter in their professional work.

Omicron Mu, Home Economics Club, was established on the campus in 1941. Since that time, its members have profited both socially and educationally from programs sponsored by the organization.

Activities of the club this past year have included demonstrations on meats and yeast breads, a Christmas party, a talk by a hair stylist, a Sweetheart dinner, a May breakfast, and a model wedding.

Members of Omicron Mu have represented the University of Dubuque at state meetings in Des Moines and Simpson College in Indianola, a national meeting in St. Louis, and a regional meeting in Chicago. Delegates, upon their return, presented interesting material to the local club.

Panhellenic is composed of three members from each sorority—the president, vice-president, and one member at large. Miss Selma Hill is the advisor of the organization.

These members meet monthly for the purpose of setting up and carrying out regulations to be observed by the four sororities. The main social function of Panhellenic is their annual Inter-Sorority Dance held in the spring. Last year a beautiful "Southern Plantation Ball" took place in Peters Commons.

This organization brings the members of the different sororities together and promotes a better understanding among the sororities.

"I'm a Lambda 'till I die" is not only a part of the Lambda song, but it is also a sentiment expressed by each member of the organization. Nineteen forty-seven—forty-eight has been a big year for the Lambdas, filled with rushing activities, parties, and many good times. The first important event of the season was the Fairyland Tea at the home of Mrs. Joseph Mihelic. The rush party, or Lucky Star Party, was a carry-over of the same theme and was held at the Calvin Schnucker home. After Hell Day and the informal initiation, three pledges were inducted at the traditional Rose Ceremony. This formal initiation and banquet took place at Buelow's after which there was a dance in the Art Room of the Hotel Julien. The dance was held in conjunction with the Gamma Phi Deltas.

Santa Claus visited the Lambdas at the Lawrence home where they enjoyed Christmas games, carols, and a gift exchange. Other activities, included the quarterly publication of the Go-Between, a newspaper designed for the interest of alums, a presentation of Wednesday night entertainment in the gym, a "Polishing-Off Luther" float in the Homecoming Parade, participation in the Inter-Sorority dance, and a weekend of "roughing it" during Flunk Weekend.

It is a sorority tradition for each active and alum to present five pounds of candy to the sorority at the time of her engagement. This has been a particularly profitable year in that respect, since there were many occasions for indulging in sweets.

Regular meetings, too, have been pleasant events throughout the year. The business meetings are usually accompanied by social meetings and are always looked forward to with eager anticipation. Because of the fun, the good times, and the pleasant moments spent together, every Lambda feels that nineteen forty-seven—forty-eight has been a profitable and successful year.

The Zeta Phi Sorority is proud to have members who are active in various other campus organizations and known for high ideals and high scholarship. The sorority scholarship cup again went to the Zetas at the Honors Convocation.

Flunk Weekend was happily spent at Sunset Beach. The Phi O's and Mu Sigs helped get things rolling at an exclusive skating party. Even the the honoraries tried wheels. Other than a few bruises from roller skating, too much to eat, sunburns, and inconveniently blown fuses, roughing it was really the life.

The Zeta booth at the May Fete carnival will be long remembered by those who received prizes. The booth had that certain appeal, an irresistible attraction, that drew a crowd in a hurry. Incidentally, the girls received "best booth" prize.

The traditional English tea began rushing, and a deep sea party brought a flood of smiles. Twelve good sports dutifully "took it" during initiation and Hell Day.

Some of the Zetas will never forget the anxious moments spent waiting for the truck to come on which the float was to join the Homecoming Parade. The motto that day could have been, "Last but noisiest!"

Formation of a Zeta choir for the purpose of giving a Christmas program to cheer folks at Mt. Pleasant Home brought the unexpected privilege of singing during the program of the 1947 Christmas banquet.

Whatever comes we will always be Zetas!

The "A's" began the year 1947 under the leadership of Mel Kissell. It was during his reign that the frat acquired four high quality pledges — Bill Bowers, Jerry Borg, Bill Sears, and Bob Werner. As usual the spring formal dinner dance was the biggest event on campus — T-bones at Kretz's and dancing at the Royal Palace in Galena. Flunk Weekend at Frentress Lake found Callahan and McBride in swimming with their clothes on. Election time in September put Jolly, Gantenbein, Price, and Scheppke in the drivers' seats. Roller skating at the Fox rink . . . weddings — Mel and Jeanne, Gibby and Rooney, Creswick and Purcy, Pomeroy and Shirley . . . then we had three "A's" make Who's Who — Joe Kuefler, Earl Gantenbein, and Jerry Borg. Joe was awarded the Kiwanis Sportsmanship Trophy. The biggest project is the "Casteel-Doran Memorial Scholarship." Don "Smiley" Head graduated in December. Then, the pay-off punch came in mid-December. Mrs. Bill Bowers produced a future "A" in Timothy William; the father did nicely. Commercial plug — Bob Daykin — insurance of any kind.

The highlight of the Mu Sig's activities this year was a naval engagement on the Maquoketa River during Flunk Weekend. Four Mu Sig boats commanded by Admiral John Heineman (who after the battle received a dishonorable discharge because of his inability to run a motor boat motor) engaged one Phi O boat commanded by Bob Jones with seamen Bob Simmons and Ed Adamek. Adamek, who fell overboard, was the only casualty of the engagement. The Phi O's had the speedier motor, but due to the overwhelming strength of the Mu Sig's they were drenched at the end of the battle. Thus, the following Mu Sig's were the victors: Heineman, Wheeless, Dunlap, Boldt, and Schmidt. There was only one sad note about the whole affair — Hank Warkentin didn't get there in time to get in on it. The Mu Sigs hope that the Phi O's will be better prepared next year.

On December 26, 1946, Hank Warkentin was the only yes (married) man in the frat. Then on December 27, 1946, Dean Boldt started a chain reaction within the frat by also becoming a yes man, followed in order by Tom Dunlap, Clancy Loats, and Mario Thomas. No wonder John Heineman and Clair Wheeless are running from the women these days.

In the fall the frat had its annual feed at Eagle Point Park. With Boldt and Warkentin on the food committee, we all needed bicarbonate of soda for the final course.

Now for the rushing season, and may our new pledges enjoy the many pleasures and good times of Mu Sigma Beta.

The highlights of the year began with the first rush party at the "Y", where the candidates for membership, actives, and a group of alumni met for entertainment. This was followed up with two more rush parties. One was held at the home of Bob Jones, and the other was the final rush banquet where we filled up with a delicious ham dinner. We were entertained by the voice of Betty Dye and were kept well in laughter by the honoraries.

Then came Hell Week with all of its chores and troubles for the pledges. Ending this series of events was the annual banquet and formal dance held the same day as the formal initiation following Hell Week. On the serious side of the ledger came the Phi Omicron Founder's Day at which time we celebrated twenty-one years on the campus. We sponsored a service in the chapel and ended the day with a grand formal in the theme of "Star Dust" at the Y. M. C. A.

At last! Spring and "Flunk Weekend." We packed our bags and were off to Camp Delhi, fast becoming a tradition for the Phi O's. In between cooking, baseball, fishing, and ping pong we found time to engage and defeat the Mu Sigs in a water battle. Taking the initiative, the Phi O's invaded their territory and, although outnumbered, succeeded in forcing a retreat. The highlight of the week-end came on the last evening when we were invited by the Zetas to a roller skating party.

With the opening of the fall quarter, after a quiet summer, social life took a sharp up-climb. The Phi O's sponsored several after-game dances and fraternity parties. For the future are planned banquets, dances, picnics, and a variety show. With all this, however, every member of the Phi Omicron finds time to participate in many other campus activities.

As the book closes on our twenty-second year we will look back with respect and fondness for the memories held in common by all of us and know that these ties will bind us toegther for a lifetime.

Fraternity life on the campus has withstood the tests of rehabilitation and has once again taken up its position on the social calendar. Consequently, the 13 Club has successfully molded itself back into shape characteristic of its prewar days.

In addition, spring rushing provided the organization with new members embodied with prospective leadership and sealed with fraternal brotherhood.

The passing year was indeed an eventful one for the 13ers, highlighted by the traditional Flunk Weekend at Back Bone where Paul Watters was introduced to the depths of the lake rather abruptly by Warrington Wick. This inaugurated Paul into the office of — not neptunis Rex, but president of the 13 Club.

The newly acquired members proved themselves an asset rather than a liability to the organization when they displayed their abilities on the float that won the honors in the 1947 Homecoming parade. Tom Taylor complimented Cliff Howard on his contribution and insisted that with Cliff's ruffles the contest was wired.

With the closing of another year the fraternity has recorded countless memories filed away chronologically in the mind of each and every member. Consequently, in years to come, when college days are called upon in periods of reminiscence; spring rushing, Hell Day, Flunk Weekend, and Homecoming will play an important role in such memorable recollections.

Three outstanding 13ers will be leaving the organization this year when they pass from the student body to the status of alumni. As Warrington Wick, Paul Watters, and Ed Koehler take this step we wish to extend our appreciation for the part they played in building the colorful organization we have today.

The Spartan Club was formed when the need was seen for some organized school spirit and cheering.

The club furnishes cheerleaders for the school and forms the nucleus of the cheering at football and basketball games. The members of the club attend one out-of-town basketball game and one out-of-town football game.

Although it is a relatively new organization, the Spartan Club has made itself known on the campus. With next year in view, everyone is standing behind the Spartans.

The Athletic Banquet in the spring quarter of '47 brought to an end the activities of the "D" Club in its first year of activation since before the war. The banquet brought recognition to many members through awards such as the Outstanding Freshman Trophy to Bud Loats, the Outstanding Senior Trophy to Bob Sellergren, and the Scholarship Trophy to Paul Watters. Many other awards were given which included athletic blankets to the captains of the teams, gold footballs, basketballs, and track shoes to seniors competing in each sport for four years. Although the seniors had to wait until the end of summer, they were presented with new combination leather and all wool blue and white jackets bearing the symbolic U. of D. Spartan.

When the "D" Club formed again in the fall of '47, the familiar faces of such athletes as Ray Kuefler, Bob Sellergren, Clair Lossin, Buzzie Freeman, and Putter Vincent were not to be found—graduation had taken its toll. Bob Kuefler, vice-president, acting as "commander-in-chief" in place of his brother, took charge in holding an election of officers which brought to light the present leaders.

Work was immediately started by the new regime to sell advertisement and work out the football programs for the coming season. With the assistance of the club members reporting early for football sessions, the job was completed with the printer receiving all the necessary information a few hours before the deadline.

Homecoming was perhaps the busiest time for the club. With decorations for the dance and the building of the float for the cow (borrowed from the Dubuque Packing Company), there was hardly time for the members on the football squad to get proper rest for the traditional game. The dance was a huge success as well as the cow on the float. Using the slogan "Let's pull this one out of the bag," it received second place.

Tradition was thrown out the window this year, and the club in conjunction with the football squad announced the Homecoming Queen and her court two days in advance of the Homecoming game. Miss Newport and her Cue staff claim they were scooped, but it happened under the strain and pressure which accompanies events such as this, and those responsible were sorry.

Jane Brown, Homecoming Queen, had the honor of being the first to wear the new permanent jeweled crown which was made through the cooperation of Miss Lindsay, home economics instructor, and her freshman basic designing class. The crown is the property of the "D" Club, and it will be used each year for the Homecoming Queen.

Basketball programs, entirely new in structure, were also presented to the Dubuque fans and students through the courtesy of the club. It is hoped that the club will be able to revive the "D" Handbook and have it available for the incoming freshmen next fall. This book will welcome the newcomers and orient them with the activities and organizations of the campus.

Displaying a team of power and speed, the Spartans went through their 1947 football schedule with five victories and two defeats.

In the backfield Bob Miller, Keith Brown, and Johnny DeAno provided the element of speed, while Marv Roesler, Gibby Irving, and Tony Schavone applied the brawn for the power.

The Blue and White rolled by Buena Vista, Penn, Culver-Stockton, Luther, and Iowa Wesleyan in fine fashion, but found Knox and Central a little too tough to handle.

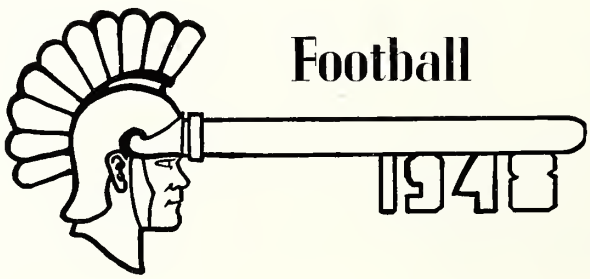

The fans witnessed the games in every type weather imaginable. There weren't two Saturday afternoons alike. The first game found the sky gray with clouds; the next was sunny; the third found the field a mud hole; and each remaining game was different until the final when rain, sleet, and snow blew in from the north.

Bob Miller and Earl Gantenbein were selected for the United Press All Iowa Conference All Star first team. Joe Kuefler received a second team berth.

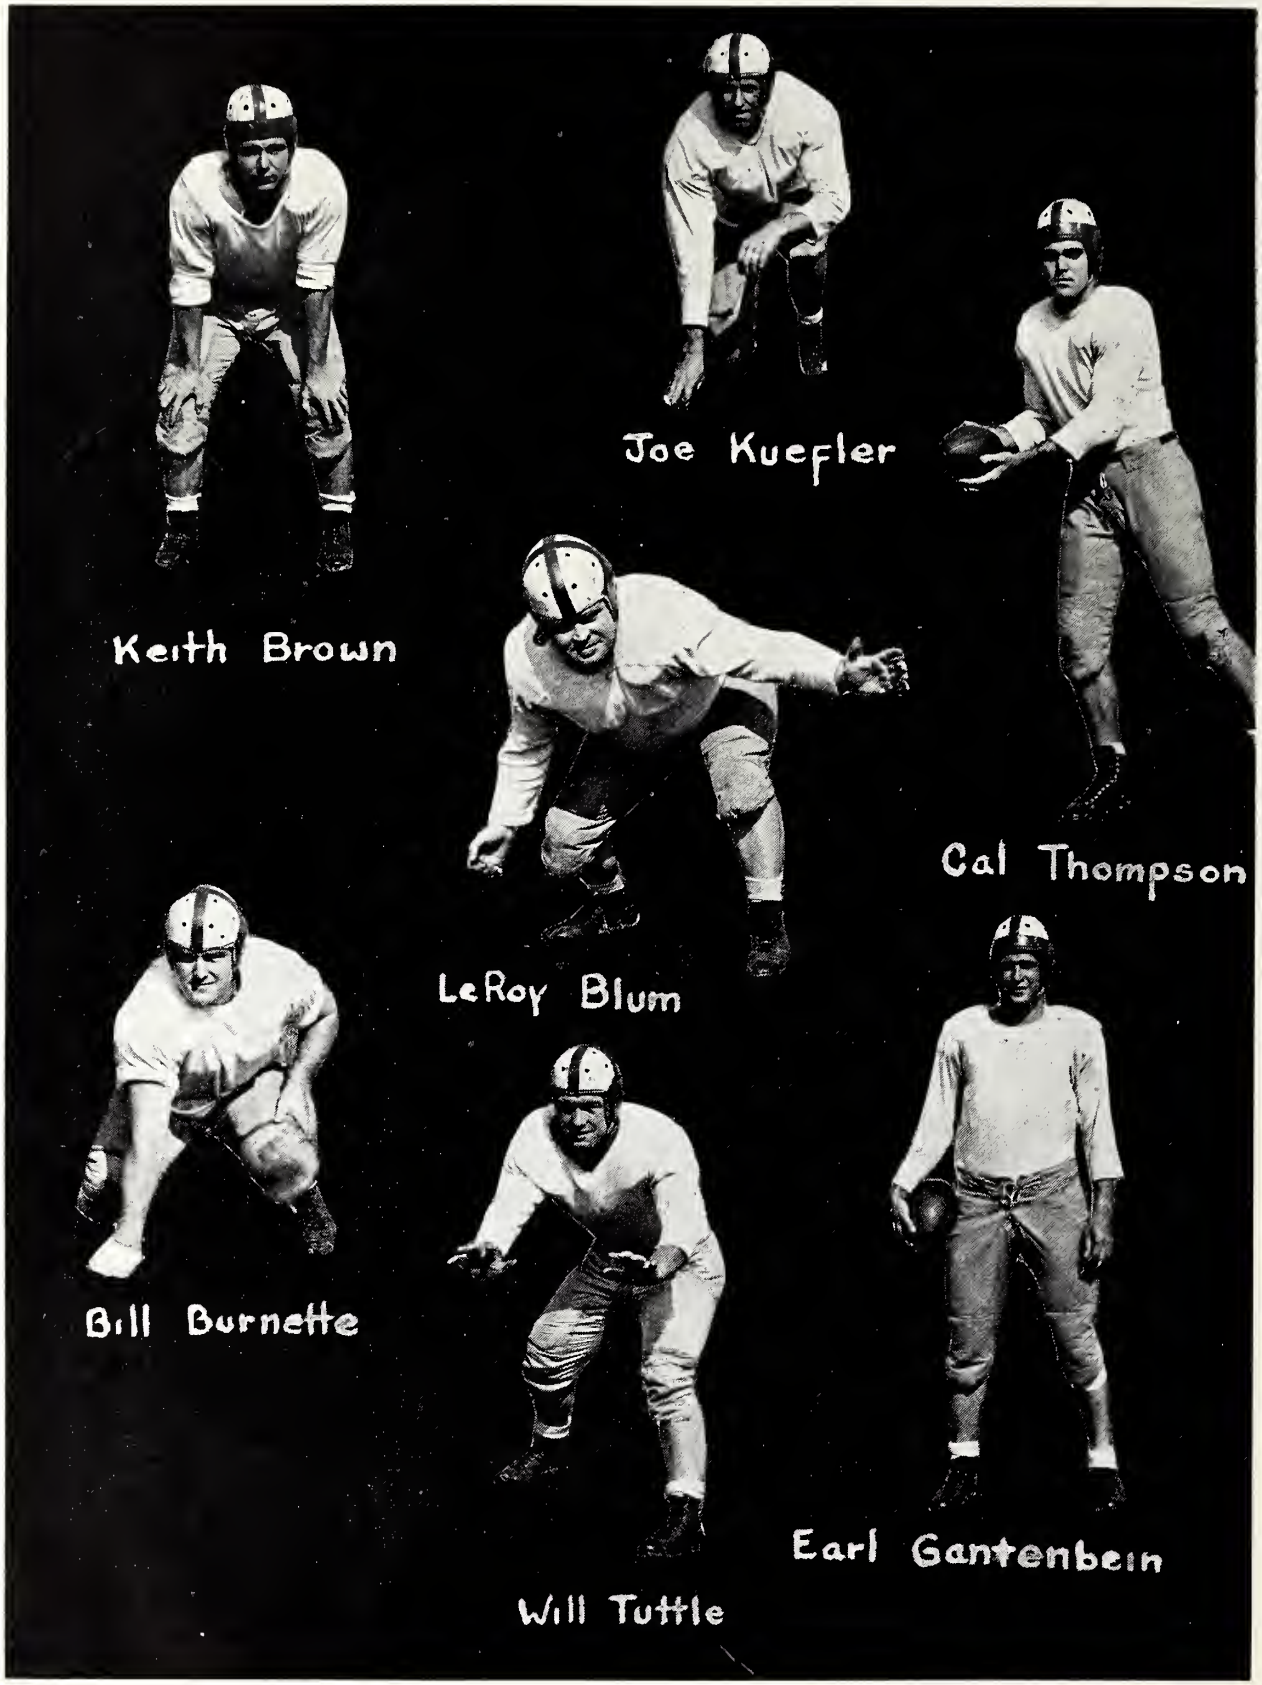

Miller crossed the goal line twelve times for a total of seventy-two points. Keith Brown's educated toe put the ball through the uprights ten out of fourteen times for a good average.

By winning eleven games without a setback in conference play, the Spartans successfully defended their Iowa Conference basketball title.

During their two-year reign the Spartans have won twenty-one out of twenty-two contests, dropping their only game to Central midway through the season last year. Since then they have run their string to eighteen straight.

Outside of conference play, the Blue and White have found the going a little rougher. Over the two-year course, the win column shows seven victories, while the losing side shows four defeats.

The Spartans took third place in the conference track meet last year — one point out of second.

Bruce Freeman was the individual star. He took first in the shotput with a toss of 42 feet 11 inches. His throw of 135 feet 9 inches in the discus was also good for first. He then threw the javelin 171 feet 10 inches for a second.

Two other firsts captured by the Spartans were by Jerry Borg and Dave Spencer. Jerry won the 440-yard dash, and Dave took the mile run.

The first four places at the finish showed Simpson winning the championship with 49½ points, with Luther slipping into second with 31, the Spartans falling one short with 30, and Iowa Wesleyan finishing out the leaders with 16.

Intramurals

One of the largest turnouts for intramural basketball in school history was recorded this year. Over 130 men were assigned to twelve teams in two leagues. These twelve teams took the names of larger schools throughout the country.

The teams played a five-game schedule in their respective leagues and the winners met in a play-off at the close of the season. Medals were presented to the winners.

In the American League there were Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, Indiana, and Ohio State.

The National League was composed of Northwestern, Purdue, Army, Navy, Wisconsin, and Notre Dame.

Illinois and Northwestern went through their leagues undefeated. The play-offs saw a closely contested game with Illinois coming out in front 33-24.

Minor Sports 1948

TENNIS

Frank Sass, Paul Watters and Frank Sass, Paul Watters.

Paul Watters swept through a good field of tennis players to capture the University Outdoor Tennis Championship.

He met Frank Sass in the finals and took the crown in straight sets of 6-1, 6-1, 6-4.

Dean "Red" Jeffers was the main threat in the Spartan's tennis team last year. He went to the finals in the conference meet and lost a close match.

The doubles team of Jim Kremer and Frank Sass survived the first round but lost in the second.

The Spartans finished third behind Wartburg and Loras.

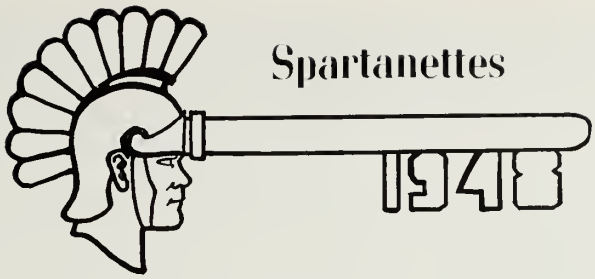

GOLF

The four-man golf representation from the University of Dubuque last year finished fifth in the conference meet. They were Johnny Shiltz, Ray Kuefler, John Anderson, and Bob Kuefler.

HORSESHOES

The Horseshoe Championship also went to Paul Watters. He defeated Don Dremmel in the finals. It was a close match, but Paul's eye and arm proved to be the better at the finish.

The Spartanettes got a slow start this year, much to the disappointment of those interested. However, a varsity team was chosen late in the season, and they got off to a good start by beating St. Joseph's Alumni in their first game 27-19.

Previous to the organization of the varsity team were a number of practice games and class games. From those participating in these games the following varsity squad was chosen:

First Team	Second Team
Helen Main, Fw.	Mari Bartlow, Fw.
Coleen Kelly, Fw.	Joann Luense, Fw.
Cleo Ploen, Fw.	Marjorie Langlie, Fw. or Guard
Rena Hutchins, Guard	Helen Havercamp, Guard
Delores Muntz, Guard	Lois Hummermeier, Guard
Dorothy Dietz, Guard	Ruth Spurney, Guard

The girls are looking forward to more games this year and to an active season next year, when they hope to get organized earlier.

A new organization for the promotion of interest in athletics and recreation among the women at the University of Dubuque came into being on the campus on January 9th of this year as the Women's Athletic and Recreation Association. Under the leadership of the president, Rena Hutchins; vice president, Helen Main; secretary-treasurer, Virginia Chalmers; and faculty sponsor, Miss Helen Raattama, and the cooperation and interest of a large group of girls, the club got off to a fine start toward success.

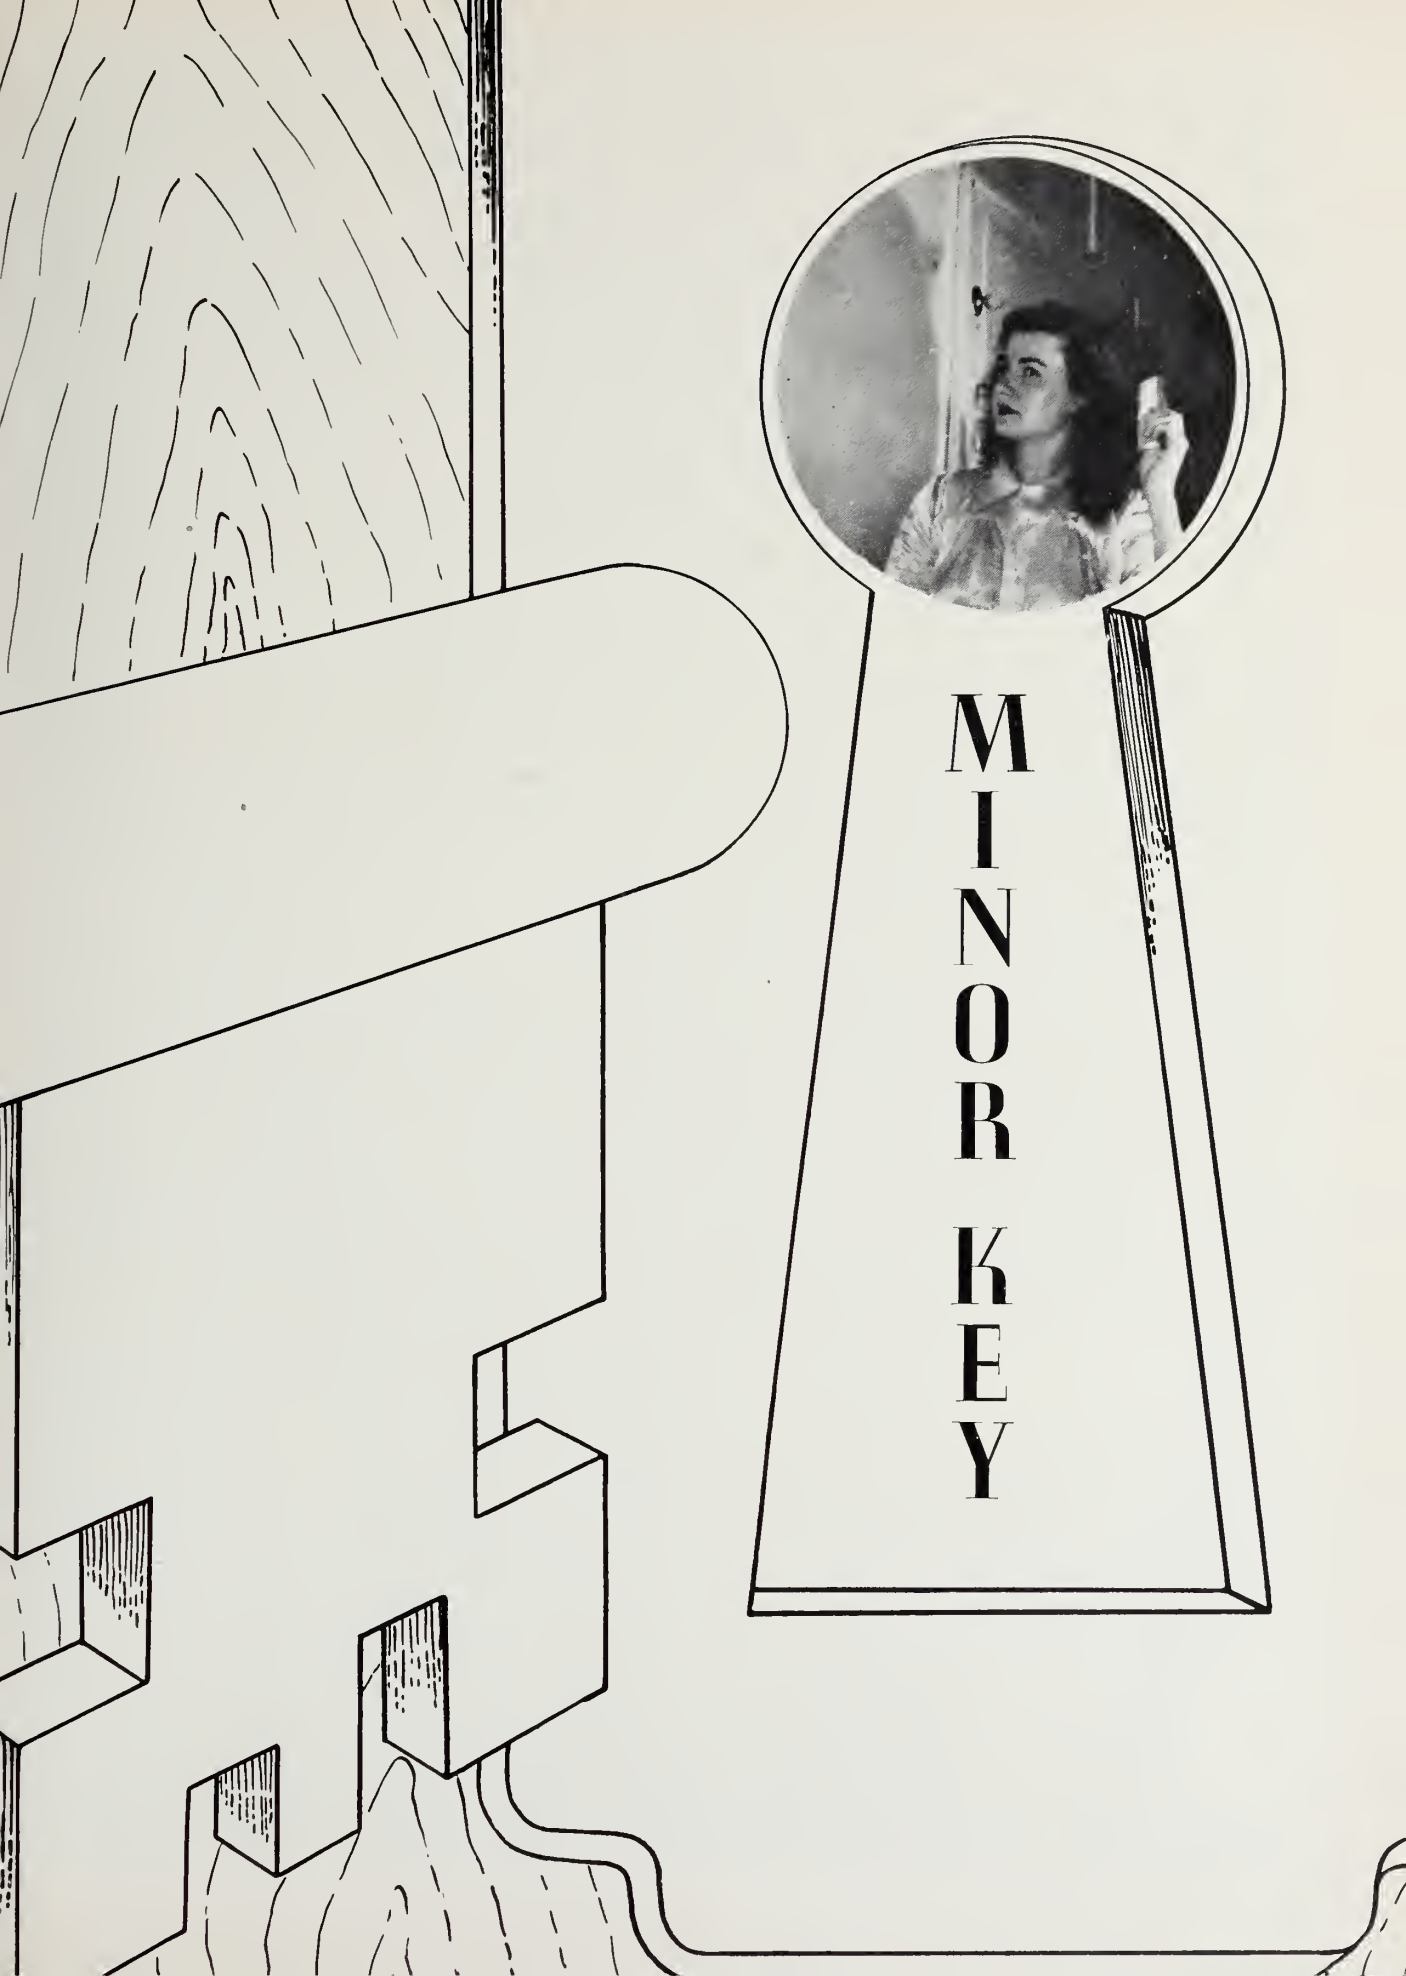

The purpose of the W. A. R. A. will be to encourage and provide opportunity for the participation in various sports offered on the campus during the year. The girls will make plans for tournaments in tennis, badminton, archery, etc., plus a girls' basketball team, a track meet, and a swimming meet. A point system has been set up to give the girls the opportunity to earn letters, emblems, awards, and sweaters.

The first big social undertaking of the organization was a Gingham Ball which was given in the spring. There is also a possibility of a Water Ballet ahead.

MINOR KEY

In Appreciation

To Professor D. Alan Martens, our staff advisor, who gave original and helpful suggestions and aided greatly with the work involved in making this publication possible.

To Dr. W. B. Zuker and Ralph Papin, our photographers, who gave freely of their time and cooperation.

To the administration, for generous financial aid. Also to the Junior Class for its assistance in promoting interest in the publication and in raising funds.

To Link Studios, for snappy, reasonable photographic service.

To the New Yonkers Engraving Company for quality service and aid.

Especially to The Hoermann Press for effective advice, generous aid, helpful suggestions and patient cooperation in setting up the "Dummy," and then for the quality work done in printing our annual.

And especially for the generous cooperation and contributions of our advertisers, merchants, and patrons who have actually made this publication a financial possibility.

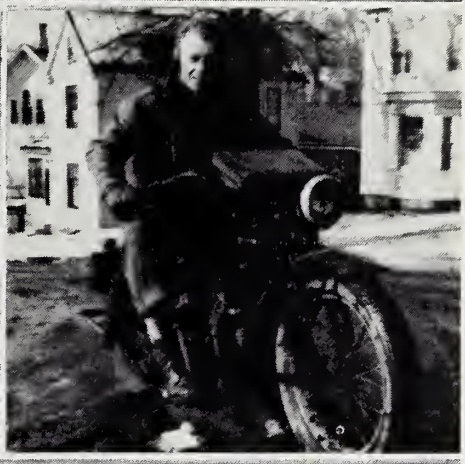

To all who have contributed in any way. We hope that this book will live up to your expectations.

ROSHEK BROTHERS COMPANY

Dubuque

Locust Street from Seventh to Eighth Avenue

Since its very beginning, in 1894, this store has always sought the best for its clientele and has maintained a policy of satisfactory service to all.

The inward urge, each year, to make it better and of more service to the community has resulted in the upbuilding of a great retail institution — one which is conceded as being the largest department store in Iowa.

Diligence, perseverance and straightforwardness count equally as well in business as in school life.
